In order to ensure a complete assessment of each candidate, the selection procedure will be carried out in accordance with one of the methods set out in Article 15 of the Regulation of Doctoral Courses of this University, and more precisely as indicated, for each doctoral course, in Annex 1 to this Notice, which the candidate is invited to read carefully.

In general, the following should be noted:

- the thresholds of sufficiency, if any, which the candidate must meet in the assessment of qualifications for admission to the interview and in the interview for passing the interview, are indicated in Annex 1;
- the minimum overall mark (i.e. the sum of the marks obtained in the assessment of the qualifications and oral test) for obtaining the final qualification is indicated in Annex 1.

The selection board, at its first meeting, identifies and reports in the relevant minutes, the criteria and methods for awarding marks in the assessment of qualifications and interview.

In the event that no minimum score is required in the evaluation of qualifications, the score obtained on the same will be made known to each candidate at the interview.

The Selection Board shall draw up the general merit rankings by including in the same only those candidates who have obtained a total score equal to or higher than the minimum total score laid down in Annex 1 to this notice for eligibility, adding together the scores obtained, in compliance with any thresholds of sufficiency, during the assessment of qualifications and interview.

On 8 August 2023 a notice will be published on the University's website at <https://www.unipg.it/didattica/percorsi-post-laurea> under the headings “Dottorati di ricerca” – “Bandi, avvisi e modulistica” / [“Research Doctorates” - “Announcements, notices and forms”] and on the University's online notice board (‘Albo’), announcing the arrangements for the interview, the dates and times of the convocation which will take place in August-September 2023 or any other communication concerning this selection process. The published calendar has the value of a formal convocation and no personal communications will be sent in this regard.

Failure on the part of the candidate to appear or to be connected in the case of online mode on the day and at the time of the interview will be considered an implicit renouncement of participation in the selection, whatever the cause.

The aforementioned documents must not have exceeded the expiry of the period of validity foreseen.

At the end of the admission procedures, a Rectoral Decree shall be issued to approve the relative documents, or to refer them back to the Commission for any regularisations and additions. Admitted to the course are those who have been placed in the ranking list, according to the provisions of Article 6 below. After approval, the rankings are published on the website at <https://www.unipg.it/didattica/percorsi-post-laurea> under the headings “Dottorati di ricerca” – “Bandi, avvisi e modulistica” [“Research Doctorates” - “Announcements, notices and forms”] and on the University's online notice board (no personal communications will be sent in this regard).
